

REGION V GREAT SPORT AWARD

Sportsmanship involves fair play and respect for opponents, for teammates, for officials, for coaches, and for the game. Being a good sport requires proper insight, the right attitude, good judgment and appropriate conduct.

In baseball, basketball, volleyball, and wrestling, Region V will confer individual Great Sport awards upon individual players whose performances during the season exemplifies the highest standards of sportsmanship. Individuals receiving the great sport award should be disciplined, fair, honest, responsible, humble, and gracious. The coach, with administrative approval may select up to two players.
