

REGION V BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

1A/2A/3A/4A

FREE THROW CONTEST

- ❖ Each school is allowed to enter one male and one female shooter (if a female shooter plays on a CO-ED team, she will be eligible to shoot with the girls and use a regulation girls or boys ball). Each shooter must have their own rebounder.
- ❖ Contestants and rebounders must be in uniform or team sweats. No t-shirts or jeans.
- ❖ Each contestant has the option of shooting 5 warm-up shots.
- ❖ Contestants shoot 25 consecutive free throws. The shooter with the highest number made will be the winner. If 25 are made the contestant will continue shooting until they miss.
- ❖ 1A - If a shooter misses more free throws than the leader missed before reaching 25 shots, that shooter will not continue shooting.
- ❖ In the event of a tie the contestants that are tied will shoot in the same order until they miss. There are an optional 5 warm-up shots.
- ❖ The order of competition will be a random draw by school. When the school name is called the boy and girl from that school will take their place at their respective baskets
- ❖ Judges will sit at the free throw line; record all shots and look for line violations.
- ❖ Announcers will remind the crowd to be quiet and to hold their applause until both shooters are finished.

3-POINT CONTEST

- ❖ Each school is allowed to enter 2 male and 2 female shooters. Each shooter must have their own rebounders. (if a female shooter plays on a CO-ED team, she will be eligible to shoot with the girls and use a regulation girls or boys ball).
- ❖ Contestants and rebounders must be in uniform or team sweats. No t-shirts or jeans.
- ❖ Contestants shoot 5 balls from 5 spots in one minute (2 baseline, 2 corners, 1 center)
- ❖ The order of competition will be a random draw by school. When the school name is called the first boy and first girl from that school will take their place at their respective baskets followed by the second boy and girl.
- ❖ A referee will be at each mid court to signify a successful attempt. A scorer will record each successful goal on the scoreboard and another scorer will record on paper. The scorer must look for the signal from the official and the making of the goal.
- ❖ In the event of a tie the tied contestants will shoot an additional minute. If they remain tied the tied contestants will continue to shoot additional rounds until a winner is established.
- ❖ The boy winner and girl winner will shoot against each other for the grand champion.
